Dear Brian Hines:

Thank you for subscribing to The Oregonian as an Easy Pay customer. Please read below for important information about your subscription account.

On Sunday, September 18, a 100-page Investment and Retirement Guide will be delivered with your Sunday Oregonian. This is the first of up to four (4) "premium editions," in addition to the premium Thanksgiving Day edition, that will be delivered with your Sunday newspaper throughout the year and applied to your subscription account. Advance notice of premium edition delivery will be provided in the newspaper.

Created by Morningstar, a leading provider of investment consulting and independent investment research, the Guide will help you plan, invest, and retire with confidence, whether you're just starting a career, closing in on retirement, or already in your post-retirement comfort zone. Other areas covered include:

- Easy ways to bump up your savings rate and maximize your Social Security benefits;
- 20 common IRA mistakes to avoid;
- How to make money last in retirement;
- Fundamentals of fund investing, and informative FAQs on 401(k)s.

There's something in the Guide for people at every stage of life and lifestyle.

$2.99 will be applied to your subscription account for the Investment and Retirement Guide and for each of the other premium editions; and $4.00 will be applied to your subscription account for the Thanksgiving Day edition. This will not be an additional charge to your credit/debit card or checking account for these premium edition charges; however, since the charge is applied to your subscription account balance, it will shorten your paid-through date so that the next charge comes about sooner.

If you have any questions about the Guide or any of the premium edition charges, contact Customer Service at 1-800-452-1420, or email us at hdelivery@oregonian.com

Sincerely,

The Oregonian
