

SALEM WEEKLY

Hello supporters of Salem Weekly.

We want to thank you for your help in publishing the Salem Weekly newspaper. The last few years we have published in difficult times, and you have helped us continue thru that. We thank you.

Unfortunately we will be closing down the paper, effective immediately.

Oct 25 was the last issue we printed. We did not run the Nov 8th issue, and will not be able to print Nov 22, or beyond.

We want to thank you for your support of the paper.

Because of this support we were able to print important stories, on very important local subjects, and that change we made, will have an effect for a long long time.

Thank you for being part of this. All of our archives will be maintain on our website.

Not sure what the future holds, but we are very proud of the thousands of stories we have published, and so grateful to all the people that have help support our efforts.

Thank you Salem Weekly.
